Policy Title:

Perquisites

1 POLICY

1.01 This policy sets out Surrey Place Centre's (SPC) Perquisites rules, which are in accordance with the Management Board of Cabinet Broader Public Sector Perquisites Directive Effective April 01, 2011.

2 PURPOSE

2.01 The purpose of this policy is to support the Vision, Mission and operational activities of SPC, and to establish the principles, mandatory requirements and guidelines on perquisites where these are provided through public funds.

3 SCOPE

3.01 This Policy applies to all SPC's employees, students, volunteers and Board Members.

4 PRINCIPLES

4.01 The overall objective of this policy is to ensure that SPC complies with the three principles set forth in Broader Public sector Perquisites Directive Effective April 1, 2011 as follows:

- Accountability
SPC is accountable for the use of public funds.
- Transparency
SPC is transparent to all stakeholders. The rules for perquisites are clear and easily understood.
- Value for Money
Public funds are used prudently and responsibly.

5 DEFINITIONS

5.01 "Perquisites", or "perks", refers to a privilege that is provided to an individual or to a group of individuals, provides a personal benefit, and is not generally available to others.

7 GENERAL GUIDELINE

7.01 The following perquisites are not allowed under any circumstance:

- 1) Club memberships for personal recreation or socializing purposes, such as fitness clubs, golf clubs or social clubs;
- 2) Seasons tickets to cultural or sporting events;
- 3) Clothing allowances not related to health and safety or special job requirements;
- 4) Access to private health clinics – medical services outside those provided by the provincial health care system or by the employer’s group insured benefit plans; and
- 5) Professional advisory services for personal matters, such as tax or estate planning.

7.02 The following items are not considered perquisites:

- 1) Provisions of collective agreements;
- 2) Insured benefits;
- 3) Items generally available on a non-discriminatory basis for all or most employees;
- 4) Health and safety requirements;
- 5) Employment accommodations made for human rights and/or accessibility considerations; and
- 6) Expenses covered under SPC’s policy on travel, meals and hospitality.

7.03 A perquisite is not allowable if it is not a business-related requirement.

7.04 A perquisite is allowable only in limited and exceptional circumstances where it is demonstrated to be a business-related requirement for the effective performance of an individual’s job.

7.05 A perquisite for the CEO requires approval from the Board President. A perquisite for the other employees, students and volunteers requires approval from the CEO.

7.06 A perquisite for Board Members requires approval from the CEO and the Board President.

7.07 All approved perquisites with supporting documents should be kept on file in the Finance Department for a period of no less than seven years.

7.08 To make allowable perquisites publicly available, a summary of paid perquisites, including description and dollar amount, will be posted annually on SPC’s website in an accessible form. Personal information should not be provided.
