

Finding Child Care

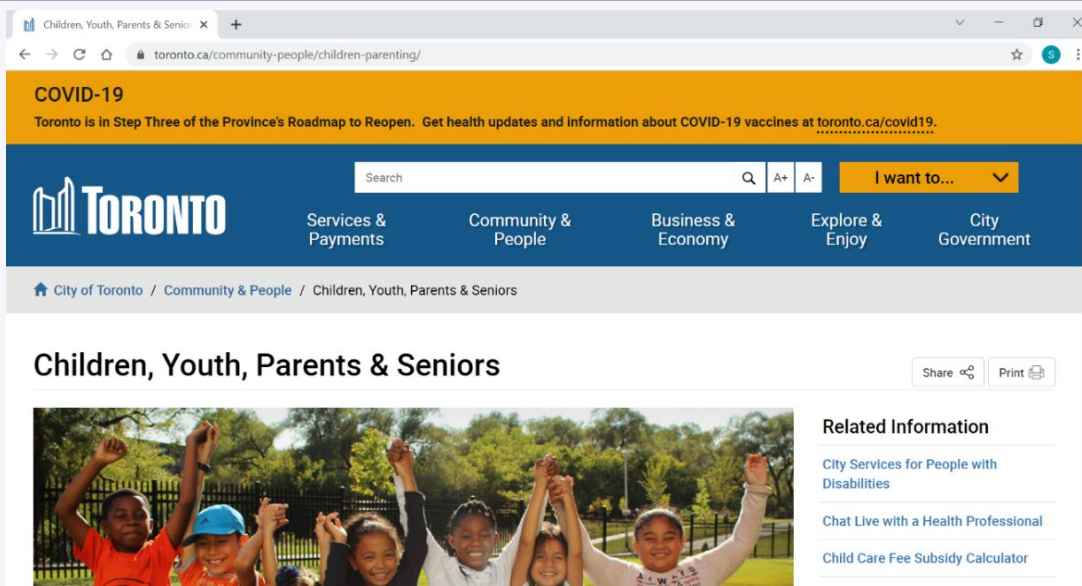

PUBLICATION DATE: 02/20/22

It is recommended that your child be enrolled in a structured early childhood education program as a form of early intervention. Due to lengthy waitlists for a childcare program, it is important that you contact each program you are interested in and place your child's name on the waitlist as soon as possible.

Follow the steps below to find suitable childcare.

INSTRUCTIONS

- Step 1 To find childcare centers in your area that are licensed by the City of Toronto, please visit www.toronto.ca/children.

FINAL TIPS:

It is a good idea to check the ratings of centers or visit them before you apply.

If you are having any difficulty applying, you can call Toronto Children's Services at 416-338-8888 and press 2 for assistance with getting on waitlists.

Set up a My Child Care Account online.

When a child care center connects with you once a space becomes available, contact your caseworker so that they can let the center's contact know when you have been approved for your fee subsidy (if applicable).
